HOUSTON — (AP) — Records of Credit Factoring, Inc., a holding company controlled by millionaire Shearn Moody Jr. of Galveston, show a $5000 contribution to Alabama Gov. George Wallace's 1968 presidential campaign, the Houston Chronicle said today in a copyright story from its Austin bureau.

The Chronicle said federal officials told them a contribution by Credit Factoring to Wallace would have violated the Corrupt Practices Act, which makes it a criminal offense for corporations willfully to contribute to a candidate's election campaign.

At Wallace's national campaign headquarters in Montgomery, Jim Gibb, in charge of fund-raising this year, said he knows nothing about the 1968 record of contributions and doubts records are available.

The contribution was made by check Nov. 1, 1968, four days prior to the election and was deposited to the "Wallace Campaign Fund" in Montgomery, Ala., on Nov. 7, the Chronicle said.
